SOMMELIER PICKS

SPARKLING/WHITE/ROSÉ

33003	Champagne Guy Larmandier 1er Cru à Vertus	NV	85
	Elegant Champagne based on Chardonnay from the village of Vertus in the southern Cote des Blancs. A touch of Pinot Noir lends fruit, but the focus remains on freshness and levity.
33015	Champagne Roger Coulon Reserve de l'Homagée	NV	90
	Now on their eighth generation of winemakers, Eric and Isabelle Coulon continue to produce exceptional wine from Vrgny in the Montagne de Reims. This wine is a blend of equal parts Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay. The Chardonnay spends about half a year in barrel lending richness and texture to this Champagne, resulting in a fuller-bodied style.
33048	Champagne Henri Giraud L'Esprit	NV	100
	The Giraud estate is probably best known for their intensely vinous and oak-driven bold Champagne from the Grand Cru Ay. The Esprit blend showcases the house style in a more affordable and less stern package. The Pinot Noir here expresses its pedigree with a fresher touch while maintaining intensity.
33050	Champagne Minière F&R Influence	2007	110
	Aged six years before release, this vintage Champagne showcases maturity on the palate with an emphasis on the fermentation and maturation in barrel. The 40 year old vines are older than many in Champagne, providing low yields of extraordinary fruit. The resulting wine is golden in color and boldly flavored, but maintains a defined minerality. Only 3,000 bottles were produced for the 2007 vintage of this label.
33035	Champagne Ruppert-Leroy Saignée des Cognaux	2011	125
	The spirit of Gerard Ruppert and his daughter Benedicte Leroy is immediately apparent in this Champagne. Coming from biodynamically-farmed vineyards in the Aube, this is a rosé expression of 100% Pinot Noir made in a brut nature style. Finely dry with an exotic, floral aroma and a wild, savory edge, this wine evokes the idea of "Burgundy with bubbles."
17802	Casa d'Ambra Biancolella/Forestera Ischia	2015	40
	Low in alcohol and high in acid, this wine screams of its island identity. Crisp, vibrant and refreshing, this wine allows all kinds of light dishes to shine while adding just the right dash of pithy citrus flavors to keep you wanting more.
17810	Mastroberardino Fiano di Avellino Radici, Campania	2006	60
	Although best known for profound expressions of Aglianico from Taurasi, Mastroberardino also makes compelling white wine. Fiano is a grape that truly translates the sense of place; one can imagine walking the foothills of Mount Vesuvius when they encounter the variety's natural smokiness. There is a veneer of oxidation and maturity from 10 years of age that enhances the overall savory experience of the wine.
14014	Luis Rodriguez Vasquez Treixadura/Albariño/Torrantes Os Pasas, Ribeiro	2013	70
	Medium bodied white wine with succulent orchard and stone fruit flavors up front that develop into citrus blossom and sea breeze. The splash of Torrantes gives a pretty floral accent without becoming too perfumed and the Albariño lends a refreshing salty tang to the finish.
16012	Cantina Terlano Pinot Bianco Vorberg, Alto Adige	2013	80
	The Terlan estate is a benchmark for high quality white wine in northern Italy. Here, Pinot Blanc takes on a fullness that exceeds its peers and showcases why this grape can make some of the finest examples of Italian white wine.
17800	Terroir al Limit Grenache/Viura Historic White, Priorat	2015	70
	Completely unadulterated rich expression of Grenache Blanc and Viura. The grapes are directly pressed as whole clusters and then allowed to ferment and aged in large concrete vats. The resulting wine has the full, broad spectrum one expects from Grenache of the Southern Rhone with a defined flinty character to the minerality.
16010	Marinushof Lagrein Rosé Alto Adige	2015	80
	Full-bodied, savory and juicy rosé that feels more at home during the winter time than the summer. This wine offers pairing versatility while being simply delicious on its own.

SOMMELIER PICKS (select a wine for a brief description)

RED WINE

13004	Ca' Marcanda - Angelo Gaja Promis, Tuscany	2001	230
The Ca' Marcanda estate was Angelo Gaja's venture into Super Tuscan wine making. While the Promis bottling is often encountered youthful and fresh, it has wonderful potential to mature into a fantastic expression of Merlot, Syrah, and Sangiovese. Dark, early, loamy fruits have a backbone of spice from the Syrah and the Sangiovese provides proper lift to keep the wine in balance.
29005	Arturo Pelizzatti Valtellina Grumello, Lombardia	1969	180
This is the wine before Ar.Pe.Pe was formed. Delicate, autumnal, but still properly structured, this wine is an amazing window into why Nebbiolo is considered one of the most ageworthy Italian red grapes.
10038	Bruno Giacosa Barolo Azienda Agricola Falletto, Piedmont	2001	190
The wines of Bruno Giacosa express the exceptional power of Nebbiolo from Serralunga d'Alba. While medium-bodied, the tension provided by the tannin and minerality of the wine provide context for what makes Barolo so great. This wine exemplifies the aromas of truffle and rose that many seek from high-quality Barolo.
10060	Giacomo Conterno Barolo Cascina Francia, Piedmont	2001	250
A wine that is right in the middle of its age trajectory. The wine expresses the warmth of the vintage with deep, generous red fruit but has a brooding earthiness, only beginning to hint at its 15 years of maturity.

14004	Bernardo Estevez Issue	2012	110
14014	Luis Rodriguez Vasquez Os Pasas	2013	70

Medium bodied white wine with succulent orchard and stone fruit flavors up front that develop into citrus blossom and sea breeze. The splash of Torrontes gives a pretty floral accent without becoming too perfumed and the Albariño lends a refreshing salty tang to the finish.

Completely unadulterated rich expression of Grenache Blanc and Viura. The grapes are directly pressed as whole clusters and then allowed to ferment and aged in large concrete vats. The resulting wine has the full, broad spectrum one expects from Grenache of the Southern Rhone with a defined flinty character to the minerality.

A wine that is right in the middle of its age trajectory. The wine expresses the warmth of the vintage with deep, generous red fruit but has a brooding earthiness, only beginning to hint at its 15 years of maturity.

	The wines of Bruno Giacosa express the exceptional power of Nebbiolo from Serralunga d'Alba. While medium-bodied, the tension provided by the tannin and minerality of the wine provide context for what makes Barolo so great. This wine exemplifies the aromas of truffle and rose that many seek from high-quality Barolo.

13004	Ca' Marcanda - Angelo Gaja Promis	2001		230
The Ca' Marcanda estate was Angelo Gaja's venture into Super Tuscan wine making. While the Promis bottling is often encountered youthful and fresh, it has wonderful potential to mature into a fantastic expression of Merlot, Syrah, and Sangiovese. Dark, early, loamy fruits have a backbone of spice from the Syrah and the Sangiovese provides proper lift to keep the wine in balance.
